

Rocky view Driving School Inc. and our clients or students will be ruled and governed in following regulation, please read carefully and sign at the bottom

IN-CLASS

The course consists of 15 hours of in class theory training which includes the final in class test. New classes begin every month or two times in month in busy seasons, and held on Saturday and Sunday or in weekdays evenings from 4 pm to 9 pm. If you should happen to miss a class or a portion of a class, you may make up the time in a future class the following month at no extra charge. The final in class test has a passing mark of 80%. If you do not pass the test on your first attempt, it may be re-written at a later date.

On-road training

IMPORTANT information before booking your first on-road session:

You must have your beginners' class 7 license.

Your course balance must be paid in full or have an arranged payment plan in place.

You must have this Terms & Condition form signed and dated and returned to our office.

All mobile devices must be turned off prior to entering the classroom or in-car training.

To receive a course completion certificate a student must achieve 80% or higher for classroom lesson and 75% or higher in car training

Rockyview Driving School Inc. is not responsible for your road test result and booking

Rockyview Driving School Inc. may cancel a classroom or in-car lesson for the following reasons....very bad weather conditions, if instructor is sick, if the cars are not in good condition to train, if accident occur during the training student for training and no refund will given

If the student is influenced by drugs or alcohol, does not have proper contacts or glasses(if necessary) Rockyview Driving School Inc. instructor will not take the student for training and no refund will be given

Rockyview Driving School Inc. instructors have the responsibility to train all students professionally. They will do their best to explain all the traffic rules and regulations. However, if the student is unable to follow instruction and pulled over by enforcement agency(police officer) it will be the students responsibility to deal with the matter

All students must present their Learner license to their instructors. If for any reason it can not be produced prior to the training, Rockyview Driving School Inc. will cancel the training and will not refunded

You must have your beginners' license with you to begin your on-road training. In this instance, if you do not have it with you, as mentioned above, your instructor will be obligated to cancel and rebook your onroad session for additional fee.

The duration of one lesson is 2 hours. Full package offered with 10 hours 5 session, but if students requested our vehicles to use for road test, additional time for road test 30 minutes allotted for your final road test for charge of $70 (if you are ready for road test) which will be performed by a Alberta drivers Examiner.

Please Note: Classroom sessions must be completed within 2 months of registration date and in car training sessions must be commenced within 2 months of completed in class session.

POLICY ON CANCELATIONS AND NO-SHOWS

In the event that you cannot keep your scheduled on-road appointment, you must advise your instructor or Rockyview Driving School Inc. office 24-48 hours prior to the appointment. Any change to an on-road appointment or meeting point must be arranged 24-48 hours prior to scheduled on road session. Requests to change an on-road session with less than 24 hours' notice cannot be guaranteed. However, we will do our best effort to accommodate your request.

If you should fail to advise us of your cancellation or do not show up for your scheduled appointment, a cancellation fee of $60 will be administered since this time was reserved for you. It is your instructor's responsibility to remain at the meeting point for 15 minutes after the scheduled appointment time, after which the on-road session is considered as no show. This missed session will be replaced at the end of the already schedule appointments closer to the road test.

You will receive a reminder 1 day prior to your next scheduled on-road session. If you are unable to keep your appointment, you may re-schedule for a later date according to your instructors availability.

Your instructor may cancel or re-schedule your on-road session within 24 hours due to illness, personal emergency, weather or road conditions, and unexpected mechanical issues with the vehicle or being delayed by Final Road Test.

ADDITIONAL ON-ROAD SESSIONS

Additional on-road training sessions to improve your driving skills are available at a fee of $145 per session.(2 hour lesson)

A payment of $35 will apply if a cheque is returned NSF.

In-class sessions must be completed within 2 months from registration date. Driving must be commenced and finished within 2 months of in class session. Course will be expired by 2 years from date of registration and will result in restarting the program with new deposit fee.

PRIVACY POLICY

Rockyview Driving School Inc. respects the confidentiality of its customer's personal information. All personal information (name, address, telephone numbers and e-mail address) may be used to improve our services and to build better customer relationships. Information regarding a customer's driver's licenses and course records may be provided to appropriate government agencies (Alberta Drivers program) for certification purposes. By providing us this information, you have consented to these uses and disclosures. This information may be used from time to time to communicate with our customers, to send out offers, surveys or marketing materials. We do not share your personal information with anyone without your consent at any time unless we are required by law to do so. In such case, we will release personal information only to the extent required.

I understand and agreed to this terms and condition,

Student Name: _____

Student Signature: _____

Parent/gaurdian Signature: _____

Date: _____